Q. Charlotte Wheeler Hilleary was the widow of Clarence/Hilleary?

A. Yes.

Q. Did Charlotte Wheeler Hilleary marry again after the death of Clarence W. Hilleary?

A. No.

Q. Harry Wheeler Hilleary and Sally Worthington Hilleary would be the twins you spoke of?

A. That is correct.

Q. I wonder how, if you know, Sarah Ellen Knapp Addoms would have found occasion to deed the property to them?

A. They could have had a Mortgage to them.

W.

Q. Could something have happened in the Will of Clarence/Hilleary---you say he died about 58 years ago---Could something have happened in the Estate of Clarence Hilleary that he owed her money or left her a gift under his will?

A. Well probably there was a Mortgage on the farm when they bought it. She could have taken that Mortgage.

Q. They owed some money on a Barn?

W.

A. Yes, cause Harry built it on the farm there after Mr. Clarence/Hilleary's death.

Q. The Addoms could have gotten an interest in the property by virtue of this Mortgage?

A. That is what I'd say happened.

Q. But the property to your knowledge was never deeded from out of the Hilleary family to the Addoms and back to the Hillearys---that never happened as far as you know?

W.

A. No. The farmers named the farm "Clarington" after Clarence/Hilleary.

Q. Do you know what happened to this property after that? After 1914 when we have a record of the Deed from Sarah Ellen Knapp Addoms to Charlotte Wheeler Hilleary, widow, Harry Wheeler Hilleary, and Sally Worthington Hilleary, Did these people stay on it and live on it?

A. Yes, Mr. Harry Hilleary was in the cattle business.

Q. And you say Harry Hilleary was around what--15 or 16 years old at the time of this deed?
